RAW WATER NOTICE

JVID raw water is supplied for irrigation use only and does not meet state or federal drinking water standards for human consumption. The City of Jackson's wastewater treatment plant discharges into Jackson Creek, which in turn, constitutes a significant percentage of the Jackson Valley Irrigation District raw water source. If you are using JVID raw water for domestic purposes, you must sign up with the JVID Bottled Water Program for your consumptive use needs. It is your responsibility to warn any tenant, guest or subsequent owner that JVID raw water is not fit for human consumption.
